

China Everbright Limited receives "Happy Company 5 years+" award

China Everbright Limited has received the "Happy Company" award from the Promoting Happiness Index Foundation and Hong Kong Productivity Council for the seventh consecutive year. The Company was also awarded the "Happy Company 5 Years+" accolade at the same time this year. The award recognizes the Company's long-standing commitment to establishing our own corporate culture that cares for and respects our employees' personal lives. In order to improve their level of happiness at work, as well as help them maintain a positive, optimistic and progressive enthusiasm for work and life, we also create a pleasant and friendly working environment for employees.

China Everbright Limited considers employees the most vital asset of the organization. We believe that a happy and healthy working environment can cultivate positive thinking for team members, which leads to enhanced motivation and efficiency as well as a strengthened sense of belonging to the Company. This ultimately leads to greater competitiveness for the Company in the labor market.

The objective of the "Happiness-at-work Promotional Scheme" is to promote the recognition of happiness at work across all walks of life, and push the development of a corporate's care, wisdom, resilience and motivation within Hong Kong enterprises and institutions. Through the scheme, companies are encouraged to create a positive workplace culture, and raise the happiness level of their workforce in the workplace.
